THE PALACE,

MYSORE.

26th Sept.

this Miller wld Yr. be agreed to do so.
I cannot say that the result of my talk with Mr. B was definitely satisfactory but I have done my best & will tell you more about it when we meet.
Mr. B was very courteous on the subject of Mr. "Verandah" practice & asked me to assure His Highness that he was only anxious to meet him in a friendly spirit, but that he must be bound by rule & precedent.
We had slight rain here this morning but there is no sign of more coming & the "season" is getting critical in the Maidan Districts.
With our kindest regards
Yours sincerely
R. Lamb
